A characterisation of PM-compact bipartite and near-bipartite graphs

Charles Little (Massey University, New Zealand)

The perfect matching polytope of a graph G is the convex hull of the incidence vectors of all perfect matchings in G. We characterise bipartite graphs and near-bipartite graphs whose perfect matching polytopes have diameter 1.